

- Topics Suggestions for Action
- put money into fundamental research because it might lead to something applicable
  - create programs for highly gifted children: support individualism
  - find ways for a society where money is not the means of recognition
  - more appreciation for the work of teachers (from Kindergarten to university)
  - "The primary role of a politician is to keep as many options open for as long as possible" (Metternich)

